

Draw Coats for Kids

Join us to help keep kids and families warm!

Draw penguins wearing coats to help raise awareness for the 5th annual ABC's Good Morning America "Warm Coats and Warm Hearts" program. Then send them in to Club Penguin! If we reach our goal of 100,000 submissions, Captain Rockhopper will make an appearance in Times Square, New York!

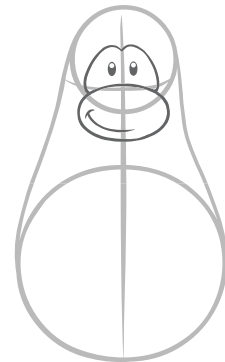

Step 1

- Hint: start drawing with lighter lines.
- Draw 2 circles and connect them.

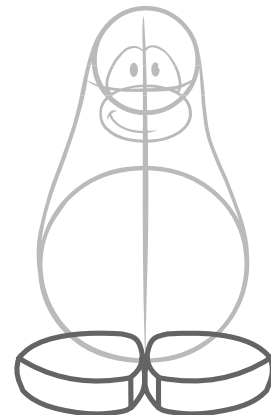

Step 2

- Make a light center line down the center and across the face. (guide lines)
- Draw eyes and a beak - they're like squashed ovals.

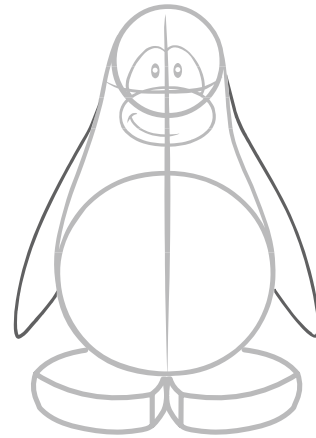

Step 3

- Draw feet - they're like flat triangles.

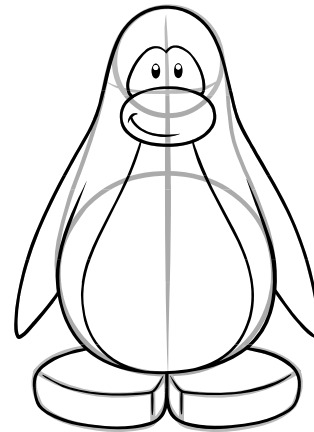

Step 4

- Draw arms - they start under the beak.

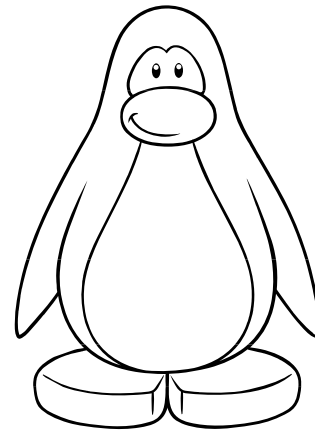

Step 5

- Draw over your lighter lines with darker ones.
- Erase any guide lines.

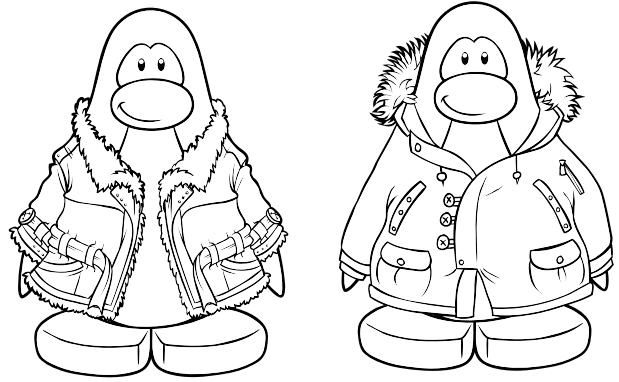

Step 6

- Don't forget the tummy patch!

Step 7

- Coat ideas - be creative!
- Some of your pictures will be shown on ABC's Good Morning America on Friday, December 2nd.

Step 8

- Upload your artwork using the Submit form at clubpenguin.com/warmcoats
- Check the What's New blog, Fan Gallery and Art Gallery in the Book Room to see some submissions.
